

Colleen J.

When I found out I had breast cancer, it came as a complete surprise. Although my family and friends could sympathize and worry with me, it was the women at BCCR who truly understood. I am grateful every day for BCCR. I don't know what I would have done without them.